Privacy Notice and Consent Statement

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police is committed to protecting the privacy rights of individuals and safeguarding the personal information under its control.

The definition of personal information is any information, in any form, about an identifiable individual. Refer to section 3 of the Privacy Act for further details regarding personal information.

The personal information you provide via the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Regular Member Application Process will be used for the purpose of Suitability Assessments. The information on this form is collected under the authority of the RCMP Act and is protected by the provisions of the Privacy Act in institutions that are covered by the Privacy Act. Refusal to provide the required personal information and consent may result in deferral from the Regular Member application process.

The personal information collected in this form is described in the RCMP's Personal Information Bank, RCMP PPU 070 and it will be used, disclosed and retained in keeping with the conditions listed in that bank. More information can be found on the RCMP's Info Source website.

Individuals have the right to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the RCMP handling of their personal information. For more information, please see the Privacy Commission website. To make a correction to your personal information or to request access to it, pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act and the Access to Information Act, please contact the RCMP's Access to Information and Privacy Branch at atipb@rcmp-grc.gc.ca.

By providing your consent and information via the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Regular Member Application Process you acknowledge that you have read and understood this statement and agree to the use and disclosure of your personal information.
